This piece was originally created as a large mural piece of art at Fargo Village Coventry and proved popular. It is now one of the staples of my artwork and I often produce live versions of it at events around the country.

Artist Profile: Jason Graham

Lives and works in Coventry, based at deadbeat art at the Fargo creative village.

Works with a variety of mediums or solely in mono using black inks.

Influenced by the psychedelic artwork associated with the live music events of the 60s and 70s.

Also influenced by the emergence of outsider art in the late 90s and the crossover of street art.

Prefer to explore and create pieces of art with immediate visual impact to the viewer.

Studied and received a diploma in art and design in the early 90s.
